Victaulic Introduces 2007 Fire Protection Systems Catalog

EASTON, PA (January 30, 2007) – Victaulic, the original innovator of grooved pipe joining, today announced the availability of the Victaulic G-105FP (Fire Protection) General Product Catalog. With more than 100 full-color pages, this is the first comprehensive product catalog featuring the complete line of innovative fire protection products from Victaulic.

The G-105FP catalog will be available in more than ten languages from around the world including English, Spanish, French, Italian, German, Dutch, Polish, Chinese and Korean.

The G-105FP catalog can be used as a quick and easy reference guide for Victaulic's Fire Protection products including the revolutionary FireLock NXT device family which offer superior productivity and performance to system designers and contractors, facility managers and building owners.

Customers can also download the new G-105FP catalog by visiting www.victaulic.com.
